NSO

Introducing new students to the McKendree campus and all that it offers is the main goal of the New Student Orientation (NSO) Staff. Activities include campus tours, group discussions, meetings with faculty, 'Games McKendree People Play,' (pictured on this page) and the NSO dance. On the final day students can go to Six Flags for a day of fun before the semester begins.

Residence Life

Resident assistants, and students in the suites, have a night out at Casa Gallardo Mexican Restaurant in Fairview Heights.

The residence life staff is headed by Steve Deckard. The staff itself consists of two residence directors, and eleven residence assistants. One male and one female serve as the residence directors. The female residence director resides in Barnett hall, and the male resides in the McKendree suites. The residence assistants are made up of students that apply for the position each semester. The residence assistants reside in the dorm with the other students. One residence assistant is on each floor of each dorm, and one assistant lives on each end of the suites. Resident assistants help with New Student Orientation, plan activities for students, enforce rules, and provide support.

Resident Director, Lori Goodwin.

Fall semester 1988 — Resident Directors — Lori Goodwin and Leon Stallard.

Assistants — Tillman Ashmore, Mike Bejos, Kristi McQuade, Cindy Porter, Julie Purcell, Neda Sanders, Patti Scatturo, Mark Terveer, Paul Wesselman, Brooke Wharton, and Kady Zeisset.

Spring semester 1989 — Resident Directors — Lori Goodwin and Paul Wesselman. Assistants — Tillman Ashmore, Chad Brown, Deb Christy, Edith Davis, Chris Honold, Sarah McCall, Kristi McQuade, Tony Neaville, Cindy Porter, Neda Sanders, Mark Terveer, and Kady Zeisset.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION

The Student Government Association has done a variety of items during the 1988-1989 school year. They have held Freshman elections, promoted the League of Women Voters, helped get the News Democrat back on campus, helped get a geography class, looked into extending the library hours, helped get Coke on campus, looked into renovating Deneen, and many more items.

The Student Government Senators for the 1988-1989 school year included: Amy Blackburn, Scott Leach, Brian Frederking, Kristin Prichard, Anne Pfitzner, Tom O'Connor, Janet Casey, Ptosha Rockingham, Tim Maloney, Kristy McQuade, Christine Addison, Tillman Ashmore, Donnelle Deine, Kent Coultas and Frank Brello. The Judicial Board included: Beth Heinemann, George Wyress, Theresa Whitworth, Carla Hammersley, Kim Melton, Jeff Wingate, and Randy Faust. The Executive Board members included: Tom Forsyth — President, Artive Vangampler — Vice President, Brian Hilgert — Student Activities Chairperson, Joel Hastings — Treasurer, Vicki Von Hatten — Secretary, and Judy Baker — Student Counselor

BUSINESS LEADERS OF TOMORROW

The Business Leaders of Tomorrow officers for the 1989 school year were: Bill Cooper — President, Mike Kirkpatrick — Vice President, Rosalie Wand — Secretary, Laura Kelemetc — Treasurer

Business Leaders of Tomorrow, commonly referred to as "BLT" was started on campus two years ago. The club is open to all students who are majoring in any area of business, or those students who are currently enrolled in a business class. Some of the club's activities include having guest speakers and taking tours of area businesses. The Mentor Program where students were matched with McKendree Alumni was also very successful. The group is also planning a job Fair for the Fall 1989 semester.

The McKendree Review

1st row — Jacki Bugg, Rosalie Wand, Kristi McQuade. 2nd row — Michele Stacey-Doyle (advisor), Chris Albrecht, Nixie McKinzie, Jodi Edgar. 3rd row — Chad Merryman, Kim Miller, Cindy Zerbst, Michelle Nettemeyer, Kristin Pritchard, Anne Pfitzner. 4th row — Laurie Kolar, Ptosha Rockingham (editor), Tina Gilkerson, and Tom O'Connor.

The 1988-89 school year was a year of change for the McKendree Review. Junior Ptosha Rockingham took over the post of editor mid-semester from junior, Brian Frederking. The size of the Review staff tripled from the 1987-88 school year, allowing the bi-monthly publication to expand to 12-page issues. The staff this year also had the advantage of using a desk-top publishing system purchased by the school. Under the guidance of business managers pat Barry, Tina Gilkerson, and Kim Miller, the advertising revenues of the paper grew nearly 100%. All of these changes added up to a greatly improved McKendree Review.

The McKendrean

Kelly Scott — editor

Carol Friedland — Co-editor & Jennifer May — staff assistant

The 1988-89 McKendrean staff was truly challenged. This year's staff worked hard to meet deadlines, although it seemed there was more work than the staff could handle. One limitation the staff encountered is the size of the book. McKendree is under a contract that limits the book to 100 pages. This year's staff worked on changing this stipulation to increase the size of the book for next year. The staff also went through the admissions office to get the names of incoming students that expressed an interest in working on the book. Editor Kelly Scott and co-editor Carol Friedland plan to share the position next year as co-editors, and they are definitely hoping for a larger staff.

1988-89 was a rather hectic year for the Clionian Literary Society, due to a rebirth. All of the actives in the fall of 1988 were brand new to the society, and thus unaware of where to begin with a brand new Clio. The majority of the year was spent gathering information from alumni and rewriting our constitution. In addition we were involved in the Juvenile Diabetes Association of the greater St. Louis area. It may have seemed like a quiet year, but all of the actives can vouch that it was a very busy year.

The society wants to thank Kevin Decker for all of his research into Kappa Lambda Iota and his support this year. Clio may be small, but we feel our sisterhood and organization is strong! Clio is back!!

PHI LAMBDA SIGMA

A. Wayne Sinnock and Michael E. Bejos

Φ Λ Σ

Dear McKendreans,

To say that this has been a trying year for the Philosophian Literary Society would be a gross understatement. This has been the year that Philo has seen its active membership fall from ten to two under the ax of academic ineligibility. Mr. A. Wayne Sinnock and myself, being the remaining two, were entrusted with the awesome task of restoring Philo to as close to it's former glory as is humanly possible.

Even though the obstacles seemed insurmountable, Mr. Sinnock and I did a fairly decent job of it. We enlisted five admirable pledges and five wonderful little sisters in an effort to repopulate our gaunt ranks, and Mr. Sinnock and I carried on Philo tradition as best we could.

Yes, this has been perhaps the saddest year in all of Philo's proud and colorful history. With our membership depleted and our hall absconded it has not been an easy path to walk but it has certainly been an enriching one, and I will be forever be indebted to Philo for the memorable experiences it has blessed me with. I only hope that future members will encounter less difficulty and as much enjoyment as I have.

Yours Fraternally,

Michael E. Bejos

CONVOCATION DEDICATION

The Melvin Price Convocation Center has been used for a number of events since its dedication on Sept. 30, 1988. The convocation center has been the sight of a concert by the Belleville Philharmonic, the first McKendree College Sports Hall of Fame induction ceremony, sports events, and Founders Day. It also has a weight room which many students have put to good use. The building has added a new dimension to campus life, for its uses are unlimited in comparison to Bearcat Gym, which is now being used for intramurals and Greek offices.

SOCCER

Although the Bearcats were upset by National College of Education in the first round of the District 20 playoffs, they enjoyed a fine 1988 soccer season. Once again the Bearcats proved to be a national power as they finished the season ranked third in the final regular season M.A.I.A. national poll. Highlights from the season include a 3-1 victory over Sangamon State in Springfield, IL as well as a victory over Rockhurst College in the Homecoming Game. Several Bearcat players were honored for their outstanding performances on the field: Steve Bee — All District, All Midwest, All America; Chris Bee — Academic All America; Mark Reinholz — All District, Academic All America. Seniors Mark Reinholz and Tony Ellis were also picked to represent McKendree College in the first N.A.I.A. Senior Bowl Game in Tempe, Arizona.

The 1988-89 Volleyball season ended with an excellent 26-10 record. The girls started out winning and extended the season to the semi-final round of state. The team was, however, plagued by injuries, one of which was, senior, Deb Avery at state playoffs. Freshman, Shelly Nettemeyer said, "We really had a great season. At first, it was really tough for me to adjust to college play but after some practice, the season was great." Most of the girls stated that the high point of the season was their victory over St. Francis. The team is only losing one player, Deb Avery, to graduation. With all the girls returning, junior, Deb Mantos said, "I'm really looking forward to next season. We definitely have a chance of winning state."

1988 Men's Basketball

The 1988-89 season marked the first year the Bearcats displayed their talent in the new Convocation Center. Although it was a year of rebuilding, the Bearcats still managed a winning season and a bid to the N.A.I.A. District 20 playoffs. Outstanding performances were turned in by Kevin Schwartz, Dmitri Joe, and Mike Ogden. Newcomer Darren Randle also had a fine season for the Bearcats.

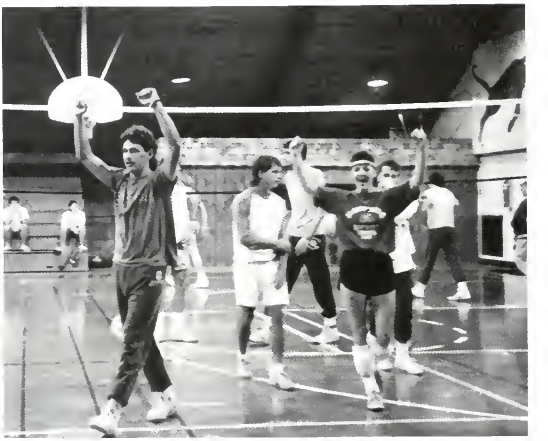
INTRAMURALS

Intramurals provided a time to let off steam or just have fun. They allowed students the opportunity to get together with friends, to participate in the games or to just sit and watch. This year's sports included volleyball, basketball, softball and tennis.



Lady Cats

The 1988-89 women's basketball team's final record was 12-14, which included wins over Division II Culver-Stockton, rival Greenville, and first-ever playoff win over Trinity Christian. Junior Sue Gilmer had an outstanding year and was named to the All-District team for her efforts. The seniors on this year's team were Cindy Porter and Rita Ledeker, who also had very successful seasons. With many younger players returning, the team has a very bright future.

The Cheerleaders do a variety of things to help arouse spirit in the McKendree community. The 1988-89 cheerleaders rode in the Homecoming parade cheered at the homecoming soccer game and many home basketball competitions. The squad's sponsor this year was Donna Wood and the captain was Sherrie Morgan. The squad holds try-outs every fall for anyone interested.

POMPON SQUAD

The 1988-89 pompon squad achieved something this year that no other squad had ever achieved, they were sixteen members strong. The squad performed at half-time of the homecoming soccer game and half-time of several home basketball competitions. The squad had new uniforms made this year by squad member Jacki Bugg's mother, Jean. The squad holds tryouts early each fall, and the season ends with the final home basketball game.

McKendree Softball

The Lady Bearcats Softball team finished 14-19 for 1989 — not quite well enough to reach tournament play.

The season highlight was a loss at the Culver-Stockton Tournament on April 21-22, said Coach Rether Johnson.

"We played the number-one ranked team in the nation and were leading 2-1 going into the seventh inning," he said. "They wound up beating us 3-2, but nobody expected us to do that well." The Lady 'Cats won the second-place trophy.

Pitching was a key in that second-place finish. The Lady 'Cats had three good pitchers this season in freshman Carol Caldwell of Albion, junior Shari Hasenstab of Belleville and senior Sandy Kunz of Freeburg.

Carol posted a 7-4 record, and an outstanding 1.16 ERA. In 73 innings she gave up only 59 hits and 19 runs.

Sandy, who also played outfield, led the offense with a .356 batting average, a .500 on-base percentage and 14 RBI.

Sophomore Beth Heinemann hit .347 with 16 RBI, three home runs and seven doubles. Her slugging percentage was .516.

Under new head coach Dennis Pieper the McKendree baseball team opened their season in Sanford Florida and had a successful spring trip returning with a 4-3 record. The Cats had quite a few highlights during the season which were: A doubleheader split with SIU-Edwardsville and a District 20 playoff birth. Key performances were turned in by seniors Ronnie Feher, Chris Landgraf, and Mike Frey. Chris Price and Kevin Hagarty also had very good years as juniors. Mark Terveer and Dan Schaller were key performers on the mound for the Bearcats.

Excellence

dedication
To a job that's hard to do;
Going the extra mile
And always trying
To follow through.
Excellence is
communication,
Sharing everything
you know,
And learning how
to listen
So your expertise
Will grow.
Excellence is appreciation
Of the talent
that you see,
Acknowledging
A job well done
Inspires success
and loyalty.
Excellence is aspiration
With a higher goal
in mind,
To trust in God
And reach for things
Of a more rewarding
kind.

Editor's Page

There are several people I would like to thank for making this book possible. Although the staff itself consisted of only three people, there are many others who contributed their time, photos, ideas, and information. In my eyes, this book captures the best of the 1988-89 school year. Hopefully, this book will bring each of you many fond memories in the years ahead. My special thanks go to: David Ottinger, who always helped the best he could despite his own problems and lack of time, to my fantastic friend and "co-worker", Carol Friedland, to my roommate, Annette Bochantin, and my boyfriend, Jeff Sommers, for their patience and understanding. Once again, thanks to all who contributed to the book.
